Approval of Contribution Re: July 4th Liability Insurance

Stanchina recommended that the City contribute $250.00 toward the cost of liability insurance for the July 4, 2013, parade. He clarified that the American's for Constitutional Enforcement (A.C.E.) would be initiating the policy and be named the insured.

Diana Miller – A.C.E. Representative

She noted that the parade does not produce an annual profit great enough to cover the cost of liability insurance.

Moraska communicated that the parade should be fiscally self-sufficient in the future. Corombos supported the donation request by A.C.E. Miller stated that only those requesting a V.I.P. position in the parade is assessed a fee.

It was moved by Moraska and supported by Alessandrini to approve an expenditure of $250.00 toward the cost of liability insurance for the July 4, 2013, parade.
