Appointment for Unexpired At-Large Council Vacancy

Rosen thanked Barry Denny, Rick Zolner, Richard Hartwell and Kyle Blomquist for expressing an interest in serving as a City Council member. Alessandrini and Revord relayed that it would be preferable for candidates to be present at future City Council appointment meetings. Moraska conveyed his support for the appointment of Rick Zolner. Rosen expressed his support for Barry Denny.

It was moved by Alessandrini and supported by Revord to table this matter in order to interview applicants for the City Council member position.

Motion Withdrawn

List and Alessandrini stressed the importance of allowing each candidate the opportunity to be present at the City Council meeting when an appointment is made.

Rick Zolner

Zolner presented his background. He indicated that his intentions are to bring diversity to the City Council from the perspective of being a property and business owner. Zolner highlighted his fiscal conservatism. He identified declining property values as a significant concern.

Kyle Blomquist

Blomquist imparted his intentions to contribute toward the advancement of the City of Iron Mountain. He communicated the opinion that economic development is a significant concern. Blomquist voiced his support for the consideration of consolidated services. He asserted that blight is a symptom of a larger problem and that it needs to be addressed within the City of Iron Mountain. Blomquist informed the City Council that his top priorities would be economic development and business advancement. He outlined his beliefs on the issues relating to the Iron Mountain School District. Blomquist confirmed that he has sufficient time to commit to the position. He related that the most important services a city can offer in an effort to assist businesses is a vibrant downtown, increased property maintenance standards and improved city wide marketing.

Barry Denny

Denny conveyed his desire to give back to the community by serving on the City Council. He indicated that the consolidation of services should be considered in an effort to maintain service levels at a reduced cost. Denny expressed the opinion that the desire to consolidate is key to the consolidation effort being successful. He communicated that business advancement, workforce development and community wide aesthetic improvements are paramount for the City to progress. Denny confirmed that he has sufficient time to serve as a City Council member. He imparted that a skilled workforce and city wide aesthetics are important to attract businesses and citizens to the community. Denny stressed the importance of the City of Iron Mountain and the Iron Mountain School District working together in order to advance the community. He outlined his pension management experience.
