Discussion of Joining Opioid Litigation

Stanchina reviewed the details of a multi-jurisdictional lawsuit being filed against opioid manufacturers and distributors. He outlined the problems opioids have caused. Alessandrini noted that there is no clause in the agreement expressly stating there will be no back billing. Pirkola communicated that there are no written protections; however, it is unheard of for these practices to bill in these types of cases. The City Council discussed the City's potential to be assessed legal fees and the time a potential payout would take.

It was moved by Alessandrini and supported by Zemar to approve the Retainer Agreement with Weitz & Luxenberg, P.C., Sam Bernstein Law Firm PLLC and Smith & Johnson Attorneys PC and Resolution To Approve Outside Council for Opioid Litigation, as presented.
