Charter Amendment Language

Stanchina conveyed that the charter language was revised by the Attorney General to accomplish the council's goal. He added that those whose terms are ending in 2013 will be affected. Alessandrini noted that the language is ready to go. VanLaanen relayed that he is not in support of this due to its low level on the priority list and the abrupt ending of an individual's term; due to a lack of smooth transition. The council agreed with VanLaanen's concerns for smoothness, but conveyed their concern for timeliness. Rosen noted that a loosing individual can use public comment to say their good byes.

It was moved by Alessandrini and supported by Farragh to approve the charter amendment language.
